

Project base in Malaysia:
www.midwestoilgas.com
jobs@midwestoilgas.com

Date: feb-27th -2010

Deepwater drilling contractor

Deepwater drilling contractor . Midwest has three openings for a Derrickman on the offshore drilling jack up, newly built jack-up rig, for a summer drilling campaign in Malaysia. The Derrickman is responsible for the safe and effective operation and working condition of the derrick, mud pumps, drilling fluids and related equipment. Candidates must have a minimum of two years experience more of rig floor with six months experience as Derrickman with another drilling contractor on a Jack up – rig and be eligible to work in the Malaysia. The successful candidate will have:

Basic safety knowledge

- An intermediate level of mechanical knowledge of rotary drill equipment
- An intermediate level of mechanical knowledge of mud pumps, charging pumps and related equipment
- An intermediate level of mechanical knowledge of mixing of mud and associated equipment

At Midwest, we offer a competitive salary with incentives, plus a benefits package that includes Medical/Dental and Vision plans with company matching contributions up to 6%. Additional travel incentives may also be available.